SIX NEW AND EXCITING WORKSHOPS

Plan your Quilting Weekends and Sign Up NOW! Workshops will be open to the other San Diego Guilds, so reserve your choices now and mark your calendars! Remember, we need at least 15 for each weekend workshop (or each day) to support the class. Make it a girls' mini-retreat and be "out of town" to your normal routine on these chosen weekends! Treat yourself to some of the newest and most creative voices in quilting.

March 15 and 16 (Sunday and Monday)

Reynola Pakusich:

OVERLAPPING CIRCLES

www.pakusich.com

Two day workshop at Rosie's,

9:30 am to 3:30 pm

Simple designs for fabulous fabrics - from a favorite teacher from Asilomar and PIQF. This class will focus on developing the interplay of fabrics to create circles that appear to overlap. With Reynola's guidance, some parts of your circles will appear to lap behind while others will appear to lap in front of the next circle. Grab a friend and your stash. Reserve your place, as this workshop will fill up!

October 17 and 18 (Saturday and Sunday)

Becky Goldsmith:

PIECE O' CAKE DESIGNS

www.pieceocake.com

One two-day workshop at Rosie's

9:30 am to 3:30 pm

This popular teacher is now living in Texas, so make sure to take this opportunity to work with her and learn all about color and hand appliqué. You will learn easy template making, how to make and use a placement for appliqué, and, most importantly, the invisible appliqué stitch. Becky will give us tips and tricks that can make working with color a lot easier. She will address color and value while teaching us how to handle a variety of needle turn appliqué techniques. This is a workshop not to be missed!
